Thimakka - Growing Trees

Thimakka and her husband Bikkalu Chikkaiah lived in Hulikal village in Karnataka. They were very poor. Bikkalu was a disabled person and Thimakka worked as a labourer in a quarry.

The couple had no children. They felt lonely. People in the neighbourhood passed hurtful remarks.

One day, tired of listening to the neighbours' jibes, Thimakka decided to adopt children. They would not be human children: they would be trees.

The lonely couple decided to plant 300 Banyan trees along a three kilometer stretch of road on National Highway 48 in Karnataka and care for them like their own children.

Since Bikkalu was handicapped, Thimakka had to work for their daily bread. Her wages as a labourer were barely enough to survive. The work was back breaking and though she did not have much time for other things, she was determined in her resolve.

They dug pits on either side of the road, chose suitable saplings and planted 300 of them. They put up thorny bushes around the saplings to prevent them from being eaten by the cattle.

Each morning, Thimakka carried water in pots from a long distance to water the saplings. During rainy season she would poke at the roots of the trees to make them go deep inside. Since the area was not fenced she kept a constant vigil for ten whole years.

This was time well spent and it gave her a sense of fulfillment.

Each morning she would go down the Kudur Road and attend to the saplings. The saplings too responded to the love and affection and responded by growing into strong and healthy plants.

Ten years later, the trees grew big and shady and stood like a green canopy along the road providing shade to the travellers, shelter to the birds and prevented soil erosion.

The trees are worth 85 crores rupees. But we all know Banyan trees can live to more than 200 years if not cut down. So, these Banyans are a national treasure.

In the year 1996, Thimakka's work was recognized. She was awarded the National Citizen's Award for social forestry by the Prime Minister of India.

श्रिमक्का - Growing Trees

थिमक्का और उसके पति विक्कालु चिक्काया, कर्नाटक के हुलिकल गाँव में रहते थे। वे बहुत गरीब थे। बिक्कालू विकलाग व्यक्ति थे और थिमक्का खदान में मजदूर के कप में काम करती थी। दल्पत्ति के बच्चे नहीं थे। वे अकेलापन महसूत करते थे। पड़ीस में लोग आपत्तिजनक टिप्पणी करते थे। एक दिन, पड़ोसियों का ताना सुन कर थक चुकी थिमाक्का ने बच्चों को गोद लेने का फैसला किया। वे मानव बच्चे नहीं होंगे: वे

पेड होंगे।

भावना दी।

उस अकेले दम्पतिन ने कलोटक में राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग 48 पर सड़क के तीन किलोमीटर के टायरे में 300 बरगद के पेड़ लगाने और इनकी देखभाग अपने बच्चों की तरह करने का फैसला किया। क्योंकि विक्काल विकलांग था, इसलिए धिसक्का को अपनी दैलिक रोजी रोटी के लिए काम करना पड़ता था। मजदूर के रूप में उसकी मजदूरी जीवित रहने के लिए मुश्किल से पर्याप्त थी। काम भी बहुत कठिल था और हालांकि उसके पास अल्य कायों के लिए ज्यादा समय नहीं था, परंतु वह अपने संकल्प पर इद थी। उन्होंने सड़क के दोनों तरफ गड़दे खोदें, उपयुक्त पीपों की कलस चूनी और उनमें 300 पाँधे लगाए। मवेशियाँ द्वारा खाए जाने से रोकते के लिए उन्होंने पाँधे के चारों और कांटेदार झाड़ियाँ डाल दी। हर सुबह, धिमकका, पौर्धा को पानी देने के लिए लंबी दूरी से बर्तनों में पानी ले जाती। बरसाती मौसम में, वह पेड़ों की जड़ें को गहरे अंदर जाते के लिए ढकेलेगी। क्योंकि क्षेत्र में बाह नहीं लगाई गई भी, इसलिए उसने दस वर्षों तक निरंतर पौकसी बनाए रखी। समय अच्छी तरह से बित रहा था और इसने उसे पूर्णता की

हर सुष्ट नह कुटूर रोड पर जाती और पाँधे की देखभान करती थी।
पाँधों ने भी प्यार और स्तेह का उत्तर दिया और इसका उत्तर
मजबूत और स्वस्थ पाँधों में विकसित हो कर दिया।
दस साल बाद, पेड़ बड़े और ठायादार हो गए और यातियाँ को
छाया प्रदान करते, पिलेमों के लिए आश्रम और मिट्टी के कटान को
रोकने वाली सड़क के साथ हरे रंग की छन की तरह छड़े हो गए।
वृक्षों का मूल्य 85 करोड़ रुपये हैं। लेकिन हम सभी जानने हैं कि
यदि काटा न जाए तो बरगद के पेड़ 200 से अधिक वर्षों तक
जीनित रह सकते हैं। तो, ये बरगद राष्ट्रीय खजाना हैं।
वर्ष 1998 में, धिमक्का के काम को पहचान मिली। भारत के
प्रधान मंत्री द्वारा उन्हें सामाजिक वानिकी के लिए राष्ट्रीय

नागरिक पुरस्कार से सम्मानित किया गया।
